.* The action between H.M.S. Hebrus and the French Frigate L'Etoile continued without intermission for two hours and a quarter, and on boarding the latter ship she was found to have four feet of water in her hold, which was fast increasing from the number of shot holes below the water line, her masts and rigging were nearly destroyed, forty men were killed and seventy wounded. Captain Palmer brought the Hebrus, with her prize, safely into Plymouth Harbour on the 29 March 1814; he was awarded the gold medal for this exploit and also offered the honour of Knighthood, which he however, respectfully, declined.*
